OF

ASSOCIATION OF STOMA CARE NURSES UK

Adopted 2012
Reviewed October 2022

PROPOSED
CONSTITUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION OF STOMA CARE NURSES UK
2022

1. Establishment and Name

The Association shall be established with the name of the “ASSOCIATION OF STOMA CARE NURSES UK” (herein called ASCN UK)

2. Objects (Aims and Objectives)

The Objects of the ASCN UK shall be to promote the art and science of stoma care nursing (and related conditions) and to improve facilities and opportunities for nurses and others engaged in such care to further their education and skills in the profession of specialist stoma care nursing.

3. Powers

In furtherance of the above Objects but not further or otherwise the Council of ASCN UK shall have the following powers:

- (a) For the benefit of the public to maintain the standards of those concerned with the care of people with stomas, draining wounds, fistulae and related conditions.
- (b) To bring together representatives of nursing and patient organisations, industry, Government departments, statutory authorities and individuals.
- (c) To promote and carry out or assist in promoting and carrying out relevant research, surveys and investigations and publish the useful results thereof.
- (d) To collect and disseminate information on all matters affecting the said objects and exchange such information with other bodies having similar objects whether in this country or overseas.
- (e) To cause to be written and printed or otherwise reproduced and circulated, gratuitously or otherwise, such papers, books, periodicals, pamphlets or other documents as shall further the said Objects.
- (f) To aim to assist nurses with an interest in stoma care, access to research based evidence which supports their role.
- (g) To provide nurses with an interest in stoma care, with educational resources and study days, as well as an annual conference.
- (h) To raise funds. In doing so, ASCN UK must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations.
- (i) To buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use.
- (j) To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to ASCN UK. In exercising this power, the committee members of ASCN UK must comply, as appropriate, with sections 117-122 of Charities Act 2011.

- (k) To borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to ASCN UK as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation. ASCN UK must comply as appropriate with sections 124-126 Charities Act 2011, if it wishes to mortgage land.
- (l) To co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them.
- (m) To establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects.
- (n) To acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charitable body formed for any of the Objects.
- (o) To set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves.
- (p) To obtain and pay for such goods and services as are necessary for carrying out the work of ASCN UK. This may include contracted third parties that work collaboratively to achieve objects.
- (q) To open and operate such bank and other accounts as the committee consider necessary, and to invest funds and to delegate the management of funds in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by Trustee Act 2000.
- (r) To do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the attainment of the said Objects.

4. Application of income and property

- (a) The income and property of ASCN UK shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
- (b) A committee member is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of ASCN UK or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of ASCN UK.
- (c) A committee member may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at ASCN UK's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of Charities Act 2011.
- (d) None of the income or property of ASCN UK may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of ASCN UK. This does not prevent a member who is not also a committee member from receiving:
 - (i) a benefit from ASCN UK in the capacity of a beneficiary of ASCN UK;
 - (ii) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to ASCN UK.
- (e) ASCN UK has a commitment to ensure they practice within statutory guidelines. This will include the payment of VAT on assets, if appropriate.

5. Remuneration of committee members

- (a) Subject to clause 4, no committee member or connected person may:
- (i) buy or receive any goods or services from ASCN UK on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
 - (ii) sell goods, services or any interest in land to ASCN UK;
 - (iii) be employed by, or received, any remuneration from ASCN UK;
 - (iv) receive any other financial benefit from ASCN UK;

unless the payment is authorised by the Court or the Charity Commission ('the Commission'). In this clause, a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

- (b) Any member or committee member appointed to represent ASCN UK in an official capacity shall be entitled to receive financial support by way of reimbursement of reasonable incurred expenses from ASCN UK funds.

6. Membership

- (a) The ASCN UK committee may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the ASCN UK to refuse the application.
- (b) The ASCN UK committee must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.
- (c) The ASCN UK committee must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The ASCN UK committee members' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing, but shall be final.
- (d) Membership is not transferable to anyone else.
- (e) The ASCN UK committee via contracted secretariat must keep a register of names and contact information for their Members. Individual Members are requested at the point of registration or renewal of their membership, to consent to providing their personal details for ASCN UK Membership administration. Members may also withdraw the consent to use their personal data at any time and in writing to the committee. A comprehensive Privacy Policy for ASCN UK is available online at www.ascnuk.com
